

Avery Dennison® Monarch® Tamper Evident Solutions

Many times thieves find clever ways to steal from stores without the retailer even knowing or realizing it has happened. Be aware of any tampering that has occurred with your merchandise or processes in your store. Avery Dennison's tamper-evident solutions can ensure you are in the know when something is not right.

Avery Dennison® Monarch® Tamper Evident Solutions

Maintain packaging security

With our wide variety of tamper evident security labels, you always know if your packaging has been compromised. These solutions can also help deter would-be thieves as they'll know their actions won't go undetected. Avery Dennison's Supply Engineering team can help provide solutions for even the toughest packaging situations.

Un-tampered package.

Package tampering is obvious and cannot be disguised.

Do you know if your credit card machine has been tampered with?

Thieves with credit card skimmers can steal from you and your customers. A simple visual labeling solution can quickly identify when a credit card skimmer has been placed on your machine.

The customized label is made of Avery Dennison's quality adhesive material that makes it virtually impossible to remove. If someone tampers with your credit card machine, the quick visual will indicate that the integrity of your machine has been compromised.

Protect Your Customers from Gas Pump Fraud.

We have an innovative, simple labeling solution to help prevent data theft at your pumps. Labels are tamper-evident so you quickly know if the integrity of your pump has been compromised. Each label can be serialized so you can ensure that no one has replaced with a counterfeit label.

Pump tampering is obvious and cannot be disguised.

Protect your merchandise with a simple cost effective label!

Fencers know they can't resell products that are not in pristine condition, so their boosters avoid theft of products with labels on them.

The Avery Dennison® Product Protected label has a strong adhesive, making it virtually impossible to peel off, and undesirable for ORC groups.

Avery Dennison Tamper-Evident Labels

Avery Dennison has a variety of simple and economical solutions that protect your profits and deter price switching. Retailers can reduce losses by using tamper evident labels that:

- Cannot be reapplied to another item once removed
- Deconstruct when tampered with

Our Monarch® Intelligent Retail Solutions improve efficiency, increase margins, reduce waste and enhance the consumer experience throughout the global supply chain.
